

SHOULD PUBLISH ALL

Eggleston Post Passes Specific Resolutions.

ALL NAMES OR NONE

Says the Criticism of Soldiers is Drivel.

Caroline Harrison Circle No. 55, Ladies of the G. A. R. and Eggleston Post No. 244 gave a public installation of officers last night in Garfield hall before several hundred spectators. Mrs. L. A. DeRoss installed the incoming officers: Mrs. Haugh, president; Mrs. Green, senior vice; Mrs. Purvis, junior vice; Mrs. Bell, treasurer; Mrs. Thorp, secretary; Mrs. Tucker, conductor; and Mrs. Grubb, guard. Following the installation of the ladies the officers of Eggleston Post were installed by Captain Burgess as follows: L. Keck, P. C.; W. C. Hills, V.; A. G. Rayburn, J. V.; J. H. Wareham, chaplain; Dr. D. E. DeRoss, O. D.; Dr. R. H. Brown, surgeon; J. R. Moore, adjutant; J. E. Palmer, quartermaster; J. Shank, O. G. After the installation Captain Burgess made a short and patriotic speech. Prof. Bosworth, on behalf of Dr. Brown, then presented two feathers plucked from the wing of Old Abe. Prof. Bosworth gave the history of that memorable bird which was greatly enjoyed by all present. Captain Burgess responded in a neat vein.

A splendid program had been arranged. Misses Woods, Goodell and Fuller gave recitations all of them being of a high order and each received hearty applause. Mrs. Colonel Bryant, Mrs. Wilson and Miss Gallagher rendered several duets and solos which were beautiful and called forth much of the hall and enjoyed a fine cold lunch. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

Whereas, A proposition has been introduced in congress to publish a roll of all pensioners and the amounts paid them, and another to repeal the time-honored law of a century, granting pensions to widows of pensioners; therefore

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

Resolved, That we believe and insist that if this is done, that the same policy should be adopted in all the expenditures of the government. That a statement, giving dates, amounts and to whom paid, for a reasonable period, may be the last twenty years, should be published. That the statement should be full and complete, giving the names, where employed, the salaries and all emoluments or wages, of all appointees, officers, servants or employees, receiving over two dollars per month. Also as nearly as can be at this late day, a list of the great body of army and navy contractors during the war of the rebellion; the nature, kind and amounts of supplies furnished under the contracts, and the amounts received for he supplies by the said contractors, whether paid for in money or bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the value of the bonds at the time. How much of said bonds or other debt of the United States remains unpaid and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds. A list of the bonds which have been paid since the war, the amounts of interest and principal which have been paid and to whom paid, and whether any frauds were committed under the authority of the said bonds or other obligations of the United States, and the names and residence of the owners of said bonds.

MEDICAL TREATMENT ON TRIAL

To Any Reliable Man.

Marvellous appliances and one month's treatment of rare power will be sent on trial, without any advance payment, by the foremost company in the world in the treatment of skin diseases, including eczema, psoriasis, and all other skin ailments. The time is now! Write today for a free trial. Address: ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N.Y.

of various kinds and often useless and worthless arms and ammunition seldom lost a cent, thousands on thousands of brave men died or lingered long, often in poverty and distress, unpaid in whole or in part. That it is high time for the false, cowardly and senseless drive against paying a portion of what is justly and honorably due the veterans, and those dependent upon them, in pensions, to be hushed and smitten in shame, for one important reason added to the justice of the payment, that the pension payments, as every sensible person knows, are a general benefit enjoyed by almost everybody in the community where the veterans live. That no money compensation could or can pay the veterans and those dependent upon them, for their services and sacrifices, but that it would be gracious and what should be expected of a great nation that it would treat and care for its veteran defenders and those dependent upon them, as a wise and loving father cares for his children, for the nation or people that is faithless to such has already entered on its period of decay. That the war waged on the women who happen to be related to the veterans, who minister to their peace and comfort and happiness is not a contest for men, but should be left to those, who in a "fight" are able to vanquish their grandmothers. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the pension committees of the senate and house of representatives at Washington.

EGGLESTON POST, G. A. R. Wichita, Kan., Jan. 12, 1938.

TOWNSHIP SPELLING MATCHES

Coville Arranges a Series of Contests.

The series of old-time spelling matches arranged throughout the county and published by the Eagle, will be held as follows:

Viola township at district 112 Monday night, January 19. Contesting districts Nos. 113, 125, 130 and 112.

Ohio township at Brooklyn district 60, Wednesday night, January 19. Contesting districts Nos. 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

History.

1. Write a brief sketch of ten or twenty lines about each of the following great men; and hand manuscripts to your teacher for correction: George Washington, Abraham Lincoln and James A. Garfield. Learn one or two quotations from each. Study their early educational adventures. Read what is said of them in your new Fourth and Fifth readers and on page 18 in Second reader.

2. Let the pupils of all grades learn the names of the presidents in the order of their election by committing the following lines. The first letter in each word is the first letter in the name of the president.

Washington and Jefferson made many a joke. VanBuren had time, plenty, to find poor bank-notes. Let Johnson go home greatly agitated.

ARITHMETIC—A AND B GRADES.

1. The product is always of the same denomination as the multiplicand. The multiplier is always an abstract number. These statements are true and taught in all schools.

Solve Nos. 2 and 3 without violating these principles.

2. Reduce 2 bu., 2 pkts., 2 qts., 1 pt. to pts.

3. How many sq. ft. in a floor 20 ft. by 15 ft.?

4. To what extent would it be practical to follow the above principles?

5. I leave Wichita at 12 m. sundown. I travel until my watch is one hour fast. In what direction did I travel?

6. What is the difference in time between Washington, D. C. and Wichita?

7. When it is 11 a. m. at Wichita, what is the time at Paris, France?

8. Careful review of the geography test will assist you in solving the problems in longitude and time.

GEOGRAPHY.

1. Under what natural conditions would the temperate zones be 49 degrees in width?

2. Are the days and nights of equal length on the equator today? Give reason for your answer.

3. Which way does the earth turn on its axis?

4. How fast does it turn?

5. How many degrees make an hour of time?

6. I start from Wichita, my watch showing sun time; I travel until it is one hour "low." In which direction and how far have I traveled?

7. Why is it that we can get election returns from New York sooner than from Kansas?

SECOND AND THIRD READER GRADERS.

1. Spell by sound and mark the following: Boy, on moon, book, ran, then, softly, cork and cent.

2. Form correct sentences using the following words: By, boy, their, there, consent, guitar, obeying, helpful, anxious, obey, silent, conference, of, off, all, out and busy.

3. Second reader pupils study lesson on page thoroughly before going to the next.

Third reader pupils begin on page 40 in new spellers. Write all hard words. I want the third reader grade to prepare one page thoroughly before going to the next.

4. For advanced grammar. Write sentences using "what" as a noun, adjective, relative pronoun and interrogative pronoun.

J. V. COVILLE, County Superintendent.

COMING LOCAL EVENTS.

The short advertised by L. S. Peacock on January 12 was postponed to January 18th.

The Magazine club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks on Friday evening.

The Wells Circle of Kins Daughters will meet with Miss Grace McAdams 811 North Topeka avenue on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Rev. John F. von Herdlich, rector of the Episcopal church, will take as his Sunday morning subject, "Newspapers and Newspaper Men."

The regular meeting of the Order of Select Priests in Perseus hall this evening at 7:30 sharp. All members are urged to be present; installation of officers and other important business. Strangers visiting in the city are cordially invited to meet with us.

THREE TIMES THE SUM

Geometric Progression of a Court Judgment.

ALL FOR A MULE

Hon. Geo. L. Hay Against Hon. F. W. Bentley.

A case came up in the appellate court yesterday that has been in litigation for 12 years. When the Wichita and Western was first built the new engines were sent over the line and were being tried in the yard at Kingman. A hired man of H. L. Ball, a locally famous speculator and famous other ways, drove a team of mules with a bran new wagon down the main street of Kingman and while crossing the track the rig was bumped by an engine, one of the mules killed and the wagon smashed. Ball brought suit. A justice of the peace awarded damages and upraisers valued the mule and wagon at $150. The railroad appealed the case to the district court. The justice court was sustained but the verdict set aside on account of some irregularity in the conduct of the court. A new trial was granted and Ball secured judgment which was again set aside. A third trial resulted in a judgment for Ball and the road appealed the case to the supreme court. Ball died. The other mule died and thousands of mules have been failed and died of old age since the administrator of Ball's estate was instructed to carry on the fight.

When the appellate court was organized the Kingman-Ball-mule case was sent here for settlement. Yesterday Hon. G. L. Hay of Kingman for the administrator of the Ball estate, made the last appeal for the mangled and often rebuffed judgment, now amounts to three times the original sum.

F. W. Bentley the attorney for the road, replied and the decision of the appellate court will settle the fate of the judgment. The fate of the mule and its owner being settled years ago. The amount will not stand for an appeal to the supreme court.

If the road has to pay the judgment and precedent would seem to indicate such, the mule will cost it a thousand dollars.

The following cases were disposed of:

278 Geo. N. Rexroad and Bert Mathias plaintiff in error, vs. the Kansas First Mortgage company. Submitted.

279 The Burlington Insurance company vs. John Sparks. Dismissed for failure to comply with rule 9.

281 Wm. Bonifay, executor of Fred Donifay, vs. Catherine C. Hill. Oral argument by Mr. Kellogg for plaintiff and defense submitted on brief.

282 A. T. & S. F. R. R. vs. T. L. and J. R. Fox, partners.

283 J. B. Most vs. J. B. Pierce et al. Continued to May term.

272 J. M. Mulkey et al. vs. P. Howes. Dismissed for stipulation.

273 The Meridian Park and Land company vs. Florence Hartley. Oral argument by Mr. Keach for plaintiff, submitted on brief for defendant.